Overseas Qualification Unit
Department of Trade, Employment and Training
PO Box 15483 - CITY EAST QLD 4002

The department reserves the right to request original certified copies of the supporting documents. An academic assessment from this office is primarily for general employment and educational purposes as a guide to the level of education in question. The professional standing of the qualification in Australia is a matter for the appropriate Australian professional body or registration authority to determine. Similarly, the academic status of the qualification for the purposes of admission to a course of study at an Australian tertiary institution is a matter for the institution concerned to determine
