

Thank you to everyone who attended the Queensland Training Awards state final back in September. It was an incredible event that brought together so many amazing finalists from across the state along with valued sponsors, stakeholders and supporters who all contributed to an amazing night.

Congratulations to the 14 state winners named on the night and thank you for sharing your inspiring stories, along with all the finalists who set such a high bar this year.

Good luck to the 11 Queenslanders announced as Australian Training Awards finalists, including 10 of our QTA winners! They'll be heading to Canberra with the main event to be held on Friday 6 December.

Preparations are underway to open nominations for the 2025 Queensland Training Awards. Stay tuned for updates here, follow @SkillsforQld on Facebook or submit an expression of interest now so our team of regional coordinators can reach out during the nomination phase to see how you're going.

Check out the 2024 highlights video below or some of the photos from the night further down.
